TOWN OF HERNDON SEEKS APPLICANTS TO BOARDS AND COMMISSIONS

Herndon, VA (December 9, 2009) – The Town of Herndon is seeking applicants to serve on its boards and commissions, to include the Planning Commission, the Architectural Review and Heritage Review Boards, the Board of Zoning Appeals and various ad hoc committees.

“We are fortunate to live in a community in which so many citizens are willing to dedicate their time and talents to benefit our town,” said Mayor Steve DeBenedittis. “I urge all citizens who are interested in serving on one of our boards and commissions to get an application on file, so that when vacancies arise we have a qualified field from which to select candidates.”

The Town Clerk’s Office maintains a “talent bank” of applications to boards and commissions. The Town Council reviews talent bank applications when making selections to fill vacancies. Applications are available via the town’s Web site, www.herndon-va.gov (Government/Town Council), and at the clerk’s office in the Herndon Municipal Center, 777 Lynn Street. A description of all boards and commissions is included on the application.

For more information or to update an application already on file, citizens may contact the clerk’s office at (703) 435-6804 or town.clerk@herndon-va.gov.

The Town of Herndon was incorporated by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Virginia on January 14, 1879. Located in western Fairfax County, Herndon is the 3rd largest town in the Commonwealth and is home to more than 23,000 citizens. Businesses located within the Town of Herndon, which range from high tech enterprises to entrepreneurially-owned establishments, employ approximately 25,000 people. Herndon has been named one of the “best affordable suburbs” in the nation by Business Week Magazine.
